YOUR TURN TOPICS

As professional nurses, the relationships we have with our clients are giving ones. But we also receive gifts. What nonmaterial gifts have you received as a gerontological nurse? 25(4):49-52

How do you attempt to bring some normalization into your residents' lives (e.g., promotion of the familiar, allowing some control in decision-making)? 25(3):48-52

How do you ensure your clients drink the amount of fluid calculated by the dietitian? 25(5):46-48

How is the practice of gerontological nursing changing in your field or setting? How do you see your role evolving in the next 5 years? 25(9):41-44

To what extent are dementia (all types) and depression diagnosed and treated in nursing facilities? 25(2):52-53

What adaptations in nursing care do you make for your oldest old clients? 25(12):41-45

What are the critical success factors for providing quality dementia care in assisted living? 25(10):46-49

What are your suggestions for modifying regulatory and enforcement strategies used by state and federal governments to promote quality in American nursing homes? 25(1):48-50

What types of clinical experiences do you think should be included in geriatric nursing courses at the undergraduate level? 25(7):46-52
